Acknowledgment of Country

We recognize that we meet today on unceded lands for whom the Karnua people are the traditional custodians. We pay our respects to Elders, past and present, and to all Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander people who are here today. Monash Australia campuses are on the lands of the people of the Kulin Nations, and we pay our respects to them as enduring custodians of all the lands, air and waters that sustain us.

Commitment to Indigenous peoples

We're committed to fostering a society that recognises, respects and includes Indigenous peoples, cultures and knowledge by working with and celebrating Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander peoples as well as Indigenous peoples of other places where Monash has a campus or major presence.

Monash University is committed to supporting and contributing to:

- The Uluru Statement from the Heart process for a First Nations Voice to the Commonwealth Parliament of Australia; and
- Treaty discussions in the state of Victoria and the Yoo-rrook Justice Commission.
